In no instance heretofore has any member of Congress refused or skulked as has Senator Wilson, and if he is sustained by his constituents, Massachusetts will have set up a new code and new practice to the whole civilized world-a code which says: "We will have no law to restrain us from slandering and libelling our fellow-men as much as we please. We will call them liars, cowards, debauchees, thieves, pirates, and brigands, if we choose, and no law shall prevent us." Our public men may go to any extent; women and children, old men with grey hairs, and infants in the cradle, may be attacked and slandered, and they shall not be called to account by husbands, fathers, nor brothers.

We shall see what the people of the other States say to this new doctrine of spe ial privilege. Meantime, it will have the effect of proving to the Southern people that they have nothing to fear from the Abolitionists, for they won't fight, either in Kansas or Washington - N. Y. Day Book

Pursuant to a call of the Mayor of the Town a In the absence of the Mayor, the meeting, was, on motion of George Davis, Esq, organized by calling Dr. Thomas H. Wright to the Chair and appointing

James Fulton Secretary. The Chairman stated that having been unexpected. meetings of Stockholders during the day, he was comparatively unacquainted with the questions likely to come before the meeting and would be pleased if some gentleman more fully cognizant of the matter would explain it to the meeting.

A call was made upon Haywood W. Gnion, Esq. President of the Company, who spoke of the value of the proposed work as a commercial road to bring freight and produce to this market,—of its immens prospective advantages—of the resources it would de relope and of its ultimate and certain extension to the Tennessee line, giving us a communication with the system of public works in the valley of the great

He said there were now two projects or proposi tions on hand for the furtherance of the work, and the thing was narrowed down to one or the other of these, or no road. First, to commence the work at Walker's Ferry, seven miles from town, on the west bank of the river, and by doing so, the $200,000 subscribed by town, with what was and would be done on the line of the road, and taking in the endorsement of the State, would build the road to the Pee Dee. Then from the Pee Dee to the town of Charlotte would have to be built and the town of Wilmington would again be expected to come to the as sistance of the work and contribute towards the building of that part; the company subsequently to build the portion of the Road between Walker's Ferry and Wilmington. Secondly, if the town would authorize her subscription to be applied on the route to Whitesville, and the Wilmington and Manchester Road and its friends would give a similar amount of $200,000, the road could be bullt without making any further call upon Wilmington.

George Davis, Esq., of Wilmington, spoke with reference to the alternatives presented by Mr. Guion, Although much preferring a terminus within the limits of the town, he was forced to believe that this was not now practicable, and without liking the idea of a Manchester Rail Road connection at Whiteville, he believed such connection to be the best under the circumstances, and preferrable to a permanent stopping of the road above town. He spoke of the heavy taxation which a subscription of $400,000 by the town, would enevitably entail.

Gen. John Grey Bynum of Wilmington, spoke at some length in opposition to the propriety of a connection with the Manchester Rail Road, and in favour of the project of commencing from Walker's Ferry, He thought the Manchester connection would be the ruin of the Road, and went into calculations to show that the money could be raised to build the road on Walter F. Leak, Esq., of Richmond county, expressed the desire of the people of his section to come to Wilmington first, if a chance were afforded. but necessity would compel them to go to some market; and if they could not get an opening in this direction, they must avail themselves of an opening where they could find it. He therefore urged upon Wilmington to do I er utmost in the matter, to secure an object of so much importance to her. As for the Manchester connection, or any other project, that was so that the road be built.

In order to bring the matter to a point, the followlowing resolution was offered:

WHEREAS, At a Town Meeting, held on the 12th of June. the Commissioners of the town did subscribe to the capita stock of the W. C. & R. R. Company the sum of $200, no monies should be expended farther than was necessary to commencement, at an early date, if not hazarding the prospect of ever building said road, and it being the ardent wish of the citizens of Wilmington that no obstacle should re-

ity of their town—

Be it Resolved, That we, the citizens of Wilmington, rescind the resolution passed at the meeting of the 12th June, 1855, and authorize and request the Commissioners of the town to take such course as may be necessary to admit of the said subscription being applied to the building of the W. C. & R. R. R., commencing at the west bank of Cape Fear River, or from a point on the W. & M. R. R., and to pay over said subscription in such instalments as the Board of Directors may legitimately require. Owing to the lateness of the hour, and in order to give full time for deliberation, Geo. Davis, Esq., moved that the meeting adjourn until 8 o'clock next evening, and that the papers of the town be requested to publish this preamble and resolution. The motion was adopted and the meeting adjourned until 8 o'clock, this, Thursday, evening.

Speculations of the British Press as to the Expected Dismissal of Mr. Crampton

PHILADELPHIA, June 17 .- Via Cape May we have some interesting items taken from the English papers brought by the steamer City of Baltimore, now coming up the river.

The news of Mr. Crampton's dismissal had not yet reached England, but the London press comment reely on the rumors of the probability. The London Times says it may be expected; but considering how much England has borne, she may well allow this to pass over with the rest; but that a fortnight after Mr. Crampton ceases to represent England at Washington Mr. Dallas will no longer exercise his functions at St. James. But there will be a remarkable difference between the two cases, Mr. Dallas having been treated with all respect, while Mr. Crampton will be ordered to leave after having endured more than any English representative in any foreign court during the present century has been called upon to The Times retracts its suggestion that we should avoid all occasion of offence, and withdraws all abstinence from anything which could by any possibility aggravate this dispute. We must undergo the indignity of seeing our Minister dismissed from the diplomatic circle of Washington for an offence supported by testimony on which we should never dream of convicting the basest of mankind.

The Presidential election must be carried at whatever price; and it is deemed by the present Ministry better to plunge their Government into any amount of disgrace, and this country into any degree of danger, than to lose a single vote which may be gained y insolence to allies or union with criminals. The Times of the 3d inst. says:-Recent intelli-

Another Novel from Mrs. Stowe.

The New York Tribune, after having completely exhausted itself in attempting to prove the iniquity of slavery as injuriously affecting the black race, has now set about to show that its results are truly deplorable in demoralizing and debasing the poorer classes of the white population. It announces with a great flourish that Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe is at work upon a new novel, which she will shortly publish, illustrating the benighted and besotted condition of the white laboring people of the Southern States. Such a book would be eminently worthy of the authoress of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Having traduced and blackened the character of the planters and other wealthy members of the slave-holding community before the world, it is fitting that she should presenting the poorer members in as dark a hue as sending of troops to Canada, when a discussion en- and vituperate the holders of slaves, that she must opposition, and give aid and comfort to the enemy, sending by troops to Canada, and vituperate the noiders of staves, if at she must after the war was delared. But it is not my purpose to make a speech. I merely arose to express to you the thanks of a true heart. I may add, too, the declaration of my high orous prosecution. appreciation of the association of my humble name with that of the distinguished and tried statesman of Pennsylvania. I have always regarded Mr. Buchanan as the last survivor of that noble band of American statesmen and orators whose names are associated with the brightest glories of our country, and whose deeds constitute its most cherished memorials. He has come down from that generation to teach and guide us of the present. He has lived down calumny and detraction, and now stands forth the peerless champion of Democracy, honored and beoved by all his countrymen, and only waiting a few months to be clothed with the highest dignity of the nation the people can confer. The platform you have so unanimously adopted, I need not, as a State Rights man, say I cordially approve and endorse. With these true Jeffersonian principles, and with the temper of Jackson to enforce and maintain them, the Democracy will enter this contest with the determination to add another to the brilliant victories which have so often crowned their efforts. It would not be appropriate to discuss any general principles or enter further upon the issues which will be involved in this contest. I will therefore conclude by expressing my purpose to devote all my heart and mind to the great duty which has been so unexpectedly conferred upon me, and to strive to justify the confidence which you have manifested.—

Erom the Washington Union Mr. Buchanan and the War of 1812. We see that several of the know-nothing and black epublican organs have reproduced a speech made by June 17th, 1856 Mr. Buchanan on the 4th of July, 1815, in which are sentiments in regard to the war with Great Britain that had then closed which now find no reponse in the public mind. As objectionable as we dmit some of these sentiments to be, we think the objection is made with an exceedingly ill grace by those who are daily giving utterance to opinions and doctrines far more unpatriotic and un-American than anything to be found in that speech. Mr. Buchanan's position and course in the war of 1812 have one redeeming feature which cannot be found in the present position and course of his assailants. REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET, FOR THE WEEK ENDING JUNE 19TH, 1856

Turpentine—Has been in fair enquiry during the week for shipping and distilling purposes, and the light arrivals have caused an advance of 10 cents on new virgin, 15 cents on yellow dip, and 15 cents on hard. The recent rains have not caused a rise sufficient to enable anything to come in from above tideway, and the receipts have been confined mostly to small boats. The week's sales foot up only 1,273 bbls., as follows:

The market this morning is firm, and above quotations were

Friday ..... 503 bbls. at 331 cents per gallon.

Sales made this morning as above; market quiet. Rosin .- The market has ruled inactive since our last review, and Common has declined a shade. The only sales we notice are as follows: Saturday 2,700 bbls. at $1 05@1 10; Tuesday 800 do. at $1 10; and this (Thursday) morning 2,500 do. at $1 08@1 10-all for large size bbls. of 310 lbs. and upwards. There is a fair stock in first hands, and buyers In Onslow county, at his residence, on the 10th day of June, 1856, Mr. GABRIEL GRAY, in the 68th year of his age; the deceased was a member of the Baptist Church. He leaves a large circle of friends and relatives, and an affectionate wife and seven children to mourn their irreparable loss.—

The deceased was kind to his family and to his servants, and a loss to many friends; and at all times the deceased, was TAR—The market has ruled exceedingly quiet for this article, and owing mainly to the small receipts we have but few transactions to notice. The sales are as follows:
Thursday... 96 bbls at .....$1 30 $\pi$ bbl.
Saturday....100 " 1 30 " "
Monday.....73 " " 1 39 " "

BEEF CATFLE, &c.—Beeves continue to be brought in slowly, and the stock in butchers' hands is light. One or two small droves received, and taken at 5 @ 5½ cents P lb. for grass fatted, as in quality. SHEEP are in full supply, and dull. Some parcels have been brought in and sold at $1.50 @ $1.75 @ head; the latter price for a prime article.

Correct—Rules exceedingly quiet and dull, and nothing doing except in the retail way:—fair stock in first hands.
We refer to our table for quotations from store, according to quality and quantity. Corron.—There is a better feeling in the market for this the sale on Wednesday of a small parcel (39 bales) midding to good middling at 10; cents $\mathbb{B}$ b.

Corn Meal.—Nothing doing except in the small way. Full supply on market, and demand confined to retailers. We quote at 70 $\mathbb{G}$ 75 cents $\mathbb{B}$ bushel, as in quantity, Eggs—Are brought in sparingly, and self from carts and boats at 18 $\mathbb{G}$ 20 cents per dozen.

Empty Barrels.—In the market for Spirits Turpentine

EMPTY BARRELS.—In the market for Spirits Turpentine barrels we have no alteration to notice. There is a fair supply on market, but they are mostly of inferior quality, for which there is no demand; some enquiry exists for a good article. Small sales at quotations. See table.

FISH.—No Mullets in market. A cargo of about 600 bbls. Mackerel arrived from Nova Scotia on Thursday, and we note sales in lots at $6 $\pi$ bbl. for No. 3. A few bbls. of No. I sold at $22.50. Dry Cod we quote at $4\pi$ @5 cts. $\pi$ h.

FLOUR.—In this article there has been very little doing, and the market has ruled remarkably dull throughout the week, at a decline of 25 cents. The receipts have been light, and the stock in market is small, but dealers show no disposition to purchase more than what is sufficient for their im-sition to purchase more than what is sufficient for their immediate wants. We quote small sales Wilmington and Fayetteville brands at $6.25 for fine, $6.75 for superfine, and $7.25 $6 bbl. for family;—no sales of cross—held at $5.75.

Grain.—The market for Corn rules exceedingly dull, and but little doing, On Monday and Tuesday we notice the receipt of 16,080 bushels, which has caused considerareceipt of 16,080 bushels, which has caused considerable dullness, and dealers do not seem disposed to operate, as there is a heavy stock on market. We note the sales of only 1,900 bushels at 58 cents 3 bushel 60 days; 1,400 do not terms not transpired, but believed at 57 cents 4 bushel; some other parcels retailing from vessel, but we are unable to give a fair criterion;—7,800 bushels still remain unsald.—OATS.—The receipts since our last have replenished the market, and there is now a tull stock in dealers' hands, and demand limited. About 4,250 bushels received, 18—Steamer Henrietta, Southall, for Elizabethtown, by master hands, and demand limited.

About 1 Ab

price, with a full supply of clean in store. The demand is cenfined to grocers, and we quote only small sales at 44 cents B b. Nothing done in rough.

HAY.—We have no change to notice in this article. There is a full stock in dealers' hands, and the market is dull. Received on Tuesday 255 bales Northern make, 105 of which ave been sold at 90 cents $ 100 fbs. LIME.—The market is fully stocked, and little or no demand exists. Our quotations in table are for store rates, in quantities to suit. A lot of 300 casks received on Friday ast, and sold at 85 cents $ cask, cash.

Lumber.—River.—Nothing doing. Quotations in table

Molasses.—Since our last review we notice the arrival from Cardenas of a cargo of 249 bhds. and 7 tierces. which has been selling from wharf at 37 @ 39 cents # gallon, in quantities as wanted. There is a fair enquiry for the article, nd the above is all that is on market. POTATOES.--Irish have been brought in rather more freely during the past week, and we reduce our figures a shade .--Sell from carts at 80 @ 90 cents & bushel.

Provisions—Bacon.—For N. C. cured there has been considerable enquiry from retailers throughout the week, and owing to the limited receipts, prices have gone up 1 @ 1\frac{1}{2} ct; owing to the limited receipts, prices have gone up 1 @ 1\frac{1}{2} ct.\frac{1}{2} none on market, with the exception of small lots in second hands. We notice one or two small parcels received, and sold at 12\frac{1}{2} cents for sides and shoulders, and 15 cents \( \mathbb{T} \) for hams; hog round nominal at 13\( \mathbb{G} \) 1\( \mathbb{S} \) cents. In Western cured we have no change to make. The stock on market is light, but there is little or no demand existing, and only small sales have been effected from store at 9\frac{1}{2}\( \mathbb{G} \) 1\( \mathbb{C} \) cents \( \mathbb{T} \) for sides, as in quality. LARD. - Receipts of N. C. continue exceedingly light, and there is very little now on market. We notice considerand there is very little how of market. We notice considerable enquiry for retailing purposes, with small sales at 134 @ 14 cents # fb., in kegs. Little or no Western in store. See table, for qu tations. ——BUITER—Northern sells from store at 20 @ 26 cents # fb., as in quality. ——PORK—The receipts of Northern Mess have been small for some time and the supply in store is light. Sells at $21 @ $22 Bobl., as in quantity.

SALT.—Nothing doing in either quality, except in the retail way. There is a full supply of Liverpool sack on market; retailing at $1.15 @ $1.20 @ sack. Alum is in small supply, but we note little or no demand. See table for store

SHINGLES-Remain about the same, with but few con in. Common sell at $2.50, and Contract at $5.50 @ $6 $ M., as in quality. TIMBER .- The recent rains have as yet had no effect on the river, and consequently the arrivals are meagre; market decidedly dull. Only a few rafts sold during the week, at rices ranging within quoted rates. See table FREIGHTS .-- Coastwise rates are without alteration. Country produce arrives sparingly, and we note only a small quantity of barrel freights offering for shipment. We refer to our table for last rates paid.

WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, JUNE 16, 1856.

Journal for the Campaign. Our invariable rule is to take no weekly subscribers for a less term than twelve months. With a view to extend the circulation of our paper, and its consequent power of being useful to the Democratic party in the coming canvass, we propose to suspend this rule during the campaign, and take subscribers for that period at our regular advance rates. We will send the Journal, commencing with that containing the official report of the proceedings of the Cincinnati Convention in June, and concluding with that containing the result official report of the proceedings of the Cincinnati Convention in June, and concluding with that containing the result of the election in November for ONE DOLLAR, invariably in advance, as we keep no accounts under the full year. We trust that the character of the Journal, as a vehicle of news, or as an organ of true Democracy, is too well established to require that we should say anything on this score, at least it is more proper that we should leave the public to decide. We ask the attention of our triends and the friends of the party to this proposition, and solicit their co-operation. We will feel obliged to our democratic cotemporaries who may notice this. Our excellent democratic cotemporaries of the Relaigh Standard, Goldsboro' Tribune, and Fayetteville North Carolinian, also offer to furnish their papers on very favorable terms during the campaign. Circulate the docu-

Queer Things.

We recollect the Democratic convention and nomination four years ago very well, and what was said of ly likely to be removed. them by the opposition. Then, N. Carolina went as a unit for James Buchanan, while there was any chance

Queer isn't it? Same thing all round you see-the Heaps of people got "dead broke." Democrats always wrong if you believe the opposi-

paper during the session of the convention, to the to what lengths extortion might have been carried effect that the Pierce men of the South were trying if the Convention had lasted another week. to run off Buchanan with a strong pro-slavery platform. It turns out that the platform which these good people called pro-slavery, and which suits the Democracy of these latitudes mighty well, was unanimously adopted in committee and in convention, and while it is equally strong with that adopted in North Carolina, is no stronger than that unanimously passed by the Pennsylvania State Convention, which had been endorsed by Mr. Buchanan long ago.

10 - The sphere of human vision, mental or physi cal is somewhat limited and people are too apt to think that because the little that happens to lie within their limited sphere, favours their notions, the whole world is at their command, and they have got things, so to speak, in a string. For instance, we have no doubt but that several people in our good town of Wilmington, by dint of mutual encouragement and deceived followers of that mysterious person, would ing some suitable person in my place. only take the trouble to step a small ways beyond their narrow beat, they would see at once, that the whole game is up. That Sam and Sam's standard bearer Millard Fillmore, are really nowhere at all, good, bad or indifferent. As many as a dozen gentlemen with whom we have conversed lately, who had very recently possessed opportunities of witnessing and studying the set of the current through this and other States, have expressed to us their surprise at hearing some of the talk going on in Wilmington, even from sensible men. Why said they, the thing is preposterous. It is months behind the time. The tide has receded and left; the thing high and dry to waste and wither. Some chips or fragments may still float about in some pond, left by the receding waves, but that too will dry up, and the whole thing

Fillmore and Donelson are obsolete ideas. They never had half a chance. Now they have not even the shadow of the shade of a chance. Their candidacy is something ghostly, phantomlike and watery. They may get a State to show that they entered for the race, but it is more than probable that their votes will be counted under the general head of "scatter-

The movements at the North point to the concentration of all the elements of opposition upon John C. Fremont. Those congenial spirits, Greeley and Bennett, both indicate him as the man, and old Benhas Col. Benton's portrait, by way of frontispiece. and the second has a view of the United States Senate, Col. Benton on the floor. The book itself is Benton throughout, except that occasionally it branches off upon John C. Fremont, who is Col. Benton's son-in-

But the special cause of our reference to Benton's chapters of the last volume, perhaps we might say the last half of the last volume, in which a laudation upon Fremont, and a labored attack upon the principle of the Kansas bill is thinly veiled under the guise | would be hung. of a historical parrative. Benton's book shows the animus of the writer-what he looks forward to, and the object his book is evidently designed to subserve. It is a labored attack upon Mr. Calhoun, upon the equal rights of all sections in the territories, and legislate upon the subject of slavery in the territories. This is a straw to show which way the wind blows.

Mass meetings are being held all through the North, ized by the most perfect order and propriety. and these mass meetings, as in New Hampshire, are composed, five out of every six, of men who have acted with the know nothings. Fremont seems to be the man. All the factions and conventions, "American" bolters, " Republicans" and all the rest, are ex- out the State. There had been some sickness among pected to come together to defeat Buchanan and Breckinridge. Need we say that the only certainty of defeating this coalition, is to be found in the union of the South upon the only national candidate who can break the ranks of sectionalism at the North.

Correction.

There is a correction we would make, although we have once made it before. The Columbia S. C. Times, is not a Democratic paper. REMOVING THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT .- This seems to be the last and latest catch-word at the North, since Brooks whipped Sumner. Because a foul-mouthlying, they propose to remove the seat of government to some free State, because forsooth, the freedom of debate is not safe in Washington City. A member has actually given notice of intention to introduce a bill to remove the seat of government to a point within five miles of Cincinnati.

Cincinnati is a pretty place to talk of removing the seat of government to, stained as it has been by Westport and other Missouri towns toward the Terferocious and bloody riots. In fact however, where, within the Free States could the seat of government be located that it would be free from the danger of mob violence. Away on the extreme East we find Neal Dow and his temperance officers shooting down peaceable citizens on suspicion of an intention to in terfere with the apostle's liquor. Boston, New York and Philadelphia, have each in their turn seen their streets swept by cannon or musketry. It won't do. The seat of government of the United States is hard-

Mr. Butler proceeded to reply to Mr. Sumner's speech. The galleries were crowded with auditors. Mr. Butler said that the necessity for his addressing the Senate on this occasion was brought about by events over which he had no control, events which have grown out of a controversy, from the chusetts, not now in his seat (Mr. Sumner) would be held exclusively responsible by his country and his God. He had delivered a speech, the most extraordinary that ever had utterance in any Legislative body recognizing the sanctions of law and of the Constitution. All that time Mr. Butler was not here, and what he would have done if he had been here, it would now be perfectly idle so say, because no one can substitute the deliberations of a subsequent period for what might have taken place on the impulse of the moment.

His impression was, if he had theen here, he would have asked that Senator, before he had finished some of the paragraphs personally applicable to him, to pause; and if Mr Sumner had gone on, he would have demanded that he should retract or modify the offensive remarks, so as to bring them within the sphere of parliamentary propriety, If Mr. S. had refused to do this, what he would have done he could not exactly say, but one thing he knew, and that was, he would not have submitted to it. To what manner of redress he would have resorted he could not tell; he would at least have assumed, upon all the responsibilities of a Senator from South Caroina, the consequences, let them fall where they might. But instead of that, that speech had involved a friend and a kinsman to the extent that he had been obliged to put his life and fortune at stake.

Instead of making his own speeches here, under the obligation of the Constitution, and in a dignified manner, the Senator from Massachusetts had acted as the conduit-the tang through which to pour out malignity and injustice. To conciliate Theodore Parker, the Senator must make war on South Carolina and on himself (Mr. Butler.) It was the purpose of that Senator to pander to the prejudices of a portion of Massachusetts. If the Senator were now here, he would make him hang his head in shame

Mr. Brooks could not go into a drawing room or to a public place, after Mr. Sumner's Broadhead of Pa., and others were present and made speech was delivered, without the question being asked-" Has South Carolina chivalry escaped, and is there to be tame submission to such insults?" "The Boston Courier publishes and endorses the sentiments of a correspondent, who says: 'If the North and South cannot meet on what above all other places should be considered neutral ground (Washington) without showing their antagonism by clubs and pistols, then it would be better if the South should form its own confederacy of oligarchical States, and the north consolidate its own free northern republic. We may speculate curiously upon the consequences of such a separation to the great divisions of the present Union, and we are certain that the spectacle would be a melancholy one to every patriot and lover of his country; but there is perhaps none so wise who could with any certainty predict all the results which would follow. Probably the North would not have the greatest cause to regret but the South would have only themselves to blame for producing it '" We declare our solemn conviction that the time has come when the people of the free states must unite in one earnest effort to recover their personal liberties and political equality, and to retrieve the honor of the country. This is the best argument we have yet seen addressed to the Free-Soilers. Only satisfy the Parkers and Wilsons at Boston, the Greeleys and Beechers of New Pork, the Giddings and Chases of Ohio, that the war they are seeking to excite will be a civil war in their own midst, as well as a sectional war against the South; that the conservative men of the North will go into the streets with their muskets in their hands, and show the abolition orators and editors that there are blows to take as well as blows to give, and we shall speedily see abolition ferocity subside. The Fight between the Chesapeake and Shannon. A correspondent in the Boston Transcript gives the following interesting account of this memorable sea fight which occurred forty-three years ago last give thrilling recollections of that memorable battle, which the proportion of killed and wounded to the survivors, was said to be greater, for the short time the battle lasted, than in any fight between single rigates on record. The battle lasted but fifteen mines, and in that time the Chesapeake had nearly two undred killed and wounded, and the Shannon one hundred; being about three hundred in all, or twenty for every minute the action lasted!

"There are, doubtless, some survivors who could

"Although young at that time, living near the cene of action, I well recollect the exciting events of the day, and heard the distant roar of the cannon on that still, beautiful summer afternoon; thousands crowded the wharves and housetops of Boston; and the battle itself, I think, was visible (with glasses) from the top of the old Exchange Coffee House. FOR SALE.

A LARGE AND DESIRABLE PROPERTY within 53 miles from Mobile, Ala., by water and 35 by land, being the first Bluff on the Tombeekba River—known as NANNAHUBBA BLUFF, of 4,000 acres of land, 3,500 acres of which are a splendidly TIMBERED PINE TRACT, A LARGE AND DESIRABLE PROPERTY withfinely adapted from its situation for a TURPENTINE OR-CHARD, WOOD YARD OR SAW MILL, or for all, to a party with a sufficient force. The two latter occupations ar river for that business, whilst its vicinity to Mobile gives the advantage of that market for either light wood or hard wood, of which there is an inexhaustible supply near the river. On this tract there are two comfortable Dwelling Houses—one on the Bluff, with a fine garden and orchard, the other about two miles back from the river, in the Piney woods, with all necessary appurtenances for a desirable Summer Residence.

The balance of the tract consists of some 500 acres of rich RIVER LAND, nearly 300 of which are now in cultivation in cotton and corn. The average production of the land is one bale of Cotton or 40 bushels Corn per acre. On this tract are also all the necessary improvements for a planta-tion—Negre Cabins, Cribs, Gin-House, &c., and, being surrounded by water, requires no fence. In addition to these advantages, this property offers that of being in the best range for stock in the country, both as a summer and winter range. Altogether, this property possesses many and great inducements for a profitable investment as well as for an agreeable residence. The locality is noted for its healthfulness and abundance of game and fish.

Also, a complete assortment of Wood Wagons, Carry-logs, Farming Utensils, 20 head of Mules, 200 head of Cattle, 300 ead of Hogs, and, if required, 150 acres planted in corn. To a purchaser, possession given immediately to the Pine Woods tract, and River Plantation after the crop is gathered. The property may be examined at any time, and informa-The property may be examined at any tion given on the premises, or by addressing S. S. HOUSTON, St. Stephens, Ala., Agent for sale.
